Dear Mr. Donnelly:

I received your letter on December 12, 1986, and I am pleased that a timetable was scheduled for release of our security responsibilities at your facilities.

The General Services Administration, Federal Protective Service, at the National Capital Region will continue to work with the Central Intelligence Agency, Office of Security, to make this a smooth transition.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter, and do not hesitate to contact me if any assistance is needed.

Sincerely,

Paul K. Trause
